It's open season

AN OPEN day held at Dundonald Croquet Club attracted 120 people.

Denise Smith and Ian McKee were the winners of the open day doubles competition picking up special commemorative plates.

And a raffle on the day raised £400 for the club's funds.

Steven Easton, the club's secretary, said: "It was a great day as the weather was perfect and plenty of folk, including new faces turned out."

MASTER STROKE: Julie McKee takes a shot with Kirsty Finlayson and vice captain Billy Smith watching.
